

is canceled when the in focus state is determined, and executes an auto-exposure when the first release operation is cancelled.

21
OAL
19. (New) An apparatus according to claim 17, wherein the focusing section determines whether the first release operation is canceled when the in-focus state is determined, and determines whether a second release operation is performed when the first
5 release operation is not cancelled.

20. (New) An apparatus according to claim 19, wherein the focusing section executes an image pickup processing.

USSN 09/160,604
Art Unit: 2612